

Although we may be apart, generosity has the ability to bring us together.

By definition,

HOMES are the places where one lives permanently, especially as a member of a family or household.

COMMUNITIES are groups of people living in the same place or having a particular characteristic in common.

HOPE is grounds for believing that something good may happen.

and then, YOU used to refer to any person in general.

You are not a person in general to Habitat MS Gulf Coast. You are our voices, our volunteers, our advocates, our donors, our families, friends and supporters!

Think about these words and how greatly they are currently impacting our community, our neighborhoods and our Nation by bringing us together. As a result of COVID-19 we have been told it's "safer-at-home" and to "shelter-in-place", unprecedented orders that have led to economic uncertainty and significant job losses. Everyone has been forced to consider the fundamental importance of home - of having a safe, decent and affordable shelter.

As we all continue to battle COVID-19, our Habitat families and our community will need to rely on us even more. With the unknown and ever-changing situation, in our homes and communities, it is important for us to do what we can.

On May 5, we need you.

Habitat for Humanity of the Mississippi Gulf Coast will be participating in #GivingTuesdayNow, a global initiative intended to unite us all through the collective power of giving. We are asking you to show your support in helping to strengthen our community and provide a healthy foundation for families' futures.

How can you show your support on #GivingTuesdayNow:

- Spread the LOVE – we will be posting #GivingTuesdayNow messages on our Facebook page and on our Instagram page. By liking and sharing our messages, you help us get the word out about the resources available in our community.
- Share your WHY – Send us a video or post a testimonial telling our community why you choose to volunteer, donate and shop to support Habitat MS Gulf Coast. Be sure to tag @hfhmgc when you do.
